Where We Come From?

The overlords of In Peace created the company as they thought that the clothing industry on planet Earth was lacking in a few essential qualities that are needed in earthling clothing.

Adrian Lan and Matt Rheaume endowed their home planet with In Peace in 2019 as a school project that later turned into a passion for both of the former earthlings.

Throughout the years, they have traveled numerous lightyears across the galaxy in order to find the best and the most universal materials to catch the eyes of others, and to comfort the one wearing.

peace out!

Our Products

We strive to create equilibrium in the universe of clothing. Our flesh-covers do not conform to any gender. Instead, we strive to provide anti-nude garments that fit all human flesh bags.

At In Peace, we strive to deliver the people of planet X-1885A, also known as the planet Earth, quality fabrics and articles of clothing.

We make sure that our human workers are adequately paid for their labour and strive to maintain peaceful non-vaporizing work environments conducive to their health and well-being.

We, the alien overlords of In Peace assure you, Earthlings, our prices in Earth currencies are fair for the quality of the pieces that we graciously provide to you.

Rejoice! As your bodies shall no longer be naked but covered in premium quality cloth based skins.

Our Materials

Our material is superior to anything found in common forms of skin-covers. The In Peace legion worked very hard to find the best possible fabric known to mankind at affordable pricing. Our specifically engineered cotton, is designed to be 2x more breathable and 5x softer than traditional earthly cotton.
