CONCLUSION

Tiki Bars are starting to grow from 2013 and onwards, they have always been around since the 1930's, in areas of tropical climate. Whenever people travel to warm tropical areas they are attracted to Tiki Bars and most specifically tropical cocktails. It is important for a Tropix Bar to open in the Old port of Montreal, because it is home to many tourists. Tourists are looking for fun and a drink when they visit so what better place to open a Tiki Bar with exotic drinks. There are already trendy Tiki Bars in the Old Port Location and that is why there should be a new one and it would grow from their on. This Tiki Bar will have many exotic cocktails that are Island inspired and will attract many tourists and locals in the area. Since tropical drinks have gotten very popular, it is essential for there to be a bar that promotes these cocktails.
