

ABOUT US

Absolutely Abnormal is a new company seeking to leave our mark on the world. Our method? Our abnormal stickers meant for the people who don't quite fit in. Stick them on your boards, your bottles, your devices. Estrange your ordinary objects from this ordinary world and join us in our mission of trying new and weird things because we can. Our motto? "Don't fit in? Neither do our stickers." We seek to help you show your individuality through our unique stickers meant to draw a second glance, cause questions to be asked, and to help you stop losing your stuff. Whether your riding a wave, half-pipe, or a rift, you can let your uniqueness shine by choosing from an array of stickers to decorate what matters most to you, because you're anything but boring.

We were founded in 2019 and inspired by the use of stickers in sports and in music; people would put them on anything they had and were proud of the unique style they had added to their equipment, devices, bottles, etc. We decided we wanted to give those kinds of people more choices, weirder choices, to truly express themselves in any way they want. Our stickers can be ordered in any size, finish, or quantity you want, to either get a message out or just add the finishing touch to your board.

OUR PRODUCTS

We have over 75 different styles of stickers. We believe nothing is worse than being boring, so we aspire to produce new designs every month to satisfy your sticker cravings as we, and you, evolve. Our stickers are durable, dishwasher and microwave safe, bubble-free with a strong stick, and are removable without leaving any residue. We use only the highest quality materials to guarantee your satisfaction.
