

John Sandford is the pseudonym of John Roswell Camp, an American author and journalist. Camp won the Pulitzer Prize in journalism in 1986. He also was the winner of the Distinguished Writing Award of the American Society of Newspaper Editors for 1985.

In October, 2013, he married Michele Cook, a journalist and screenwriter. They currently have homes in Santa Fe, New Mexico and the countryside near Hayward, Wisconsin. In addition to co-authoring the three books in the Singular Menace series, Cook has done the initial editing of all the Sandford books since 2010.

THE SINGULAR MENACE
BOOK 2

Shay Remby and her renegade gang break out more than just her brother from the grasp of the Singular Corporation. They also rescued a girl, who had been subjected to gruesome experiments, which resulted in her containing the memories of a U.S. senator. They thought Singular had been an inhumane animal testing company, but now they know it is so much more.

Now that they hold the knowledge of Singular contained by her brother Odin and the girl Fenfang, will they be able to take down Singular, once and for all? They seem to run from the highest levels of government: could these teen terrorists beat this crooked elite company?

Don't miss the other books in the Singular Menace series:

RAMPAGE

-GOODREADS

You know John Sandford as the prolific author of the Lucas Davenport series as well as, my favorite, the Virgil Flowers series. Now Sandford has teamed up with Michele Cook to write a Young Adult Action/Thriller series.

-JOYFULLY RETIRED

Now a trilogy, THE SINGULAR MENACE series pulls you into Hollywood style suspense. With a badass lead character, you're sure to find yourself enthralled in John Sandford's newest foray in Young Adult thrillers.
