Amongst the bars in Point-Claire village, there is one common theme that plagues them: they are too generic. With Jaegersheim, our goal is to offer a unique resto-bar and pub that stands out amongst its competitors. With the closing of "The Pioneer" in July, Point-Claire village feels a little emptier. With a common theme and feel as "The Pioneer", "Jaegersheim" can garner the initial public interest and publicity needed to be able to prove itself as a viable bar and to take off successfully.

WE'VE OBSERVED

There are few karaoke bars compared to their high demand

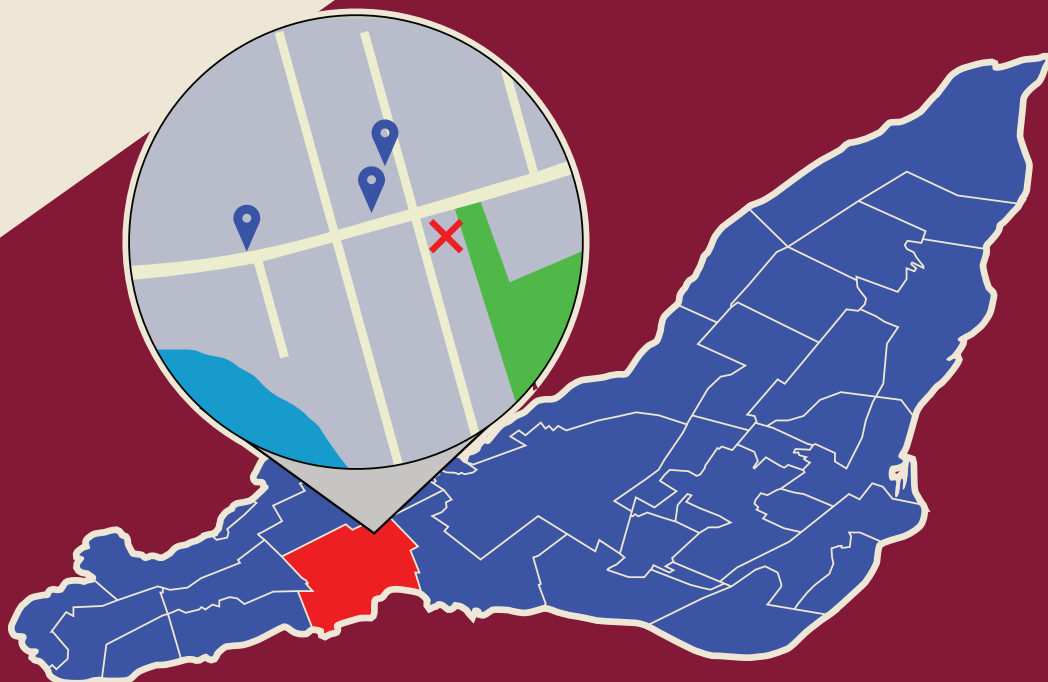

Most local bars have no shot specials and are too expensive

People want a place to go on Friday nights, which is missing in the west island

Why here?

- I. Bus accessibility
- II. Water front proximity
- III. Adjacent to park

We want our bar here
