The Staff:

Each of the Staff members have their very own super creative and unique description. It tells us about themselves and their profession.

"The Captain's steady hand ensures that the ship holds its course through the storms. The president is involved in many and varied ways: business strategy, creation and production, the very broad guarantee that all LEEROY's customers are served with the same passion and the same desire to perform. His analytical and tactical spirit ensures that all assignments are worked over and checked with a fine tooth comb; things have to be just perfect. The team also very much appreciates him for his homemade sandwiches and salad dressings."

"Silent and deadly, JF can fix your problem before you have time to refresh your page. Although he may be quite around the office, he is a champion of mental sharpness and excellent work. We're just glad he's on our team..."

"A TEAM IS NOT A GROUP OF PEOPLE WHO WORK TOGETHER. A TEAM IS A GROUP OF PEOPLE WHO TRUST EACH OTHER."
