Adventures seen through a young Photographer's Eyes

It is important to be an observer in life. Pay attention to the small details, learn something new, and let your mind be free! Bill Nye once said, "Everyone you will ever meet knows something you don't". The mind is an infinite place.

Before you, is a wonderful book I created and designed. My objective is to share my perspective on a simple trip I had to New Brunswick and to hopefully encourage you to open your eyes even more to all the wonders of the world!

My name is Jonathan Thériault and I am currently a Second Year Graphic and Web Design Student. I am a young man with a camera, capturing memories one picture at a time. Follow me on my adventure in this book !!

Every Adventure Starts With One Road,
But Can Lead To Many Destinations.

Through Thick and Thin
We Will Stand !!
Or Fall..

A Destination Is Always Waiting For You

The Branches
May Be Broken,
But the Path is Clear

Like every book, every adventure comes to an end, but just keep in mind that the road does not have to stop there.

Your Adventure Can Take A Pause, But Never Needs To End
