

Hi, I'm Natalie Heather Davis. I'm a Graphic & Web Design student. Here's a collection of things I've made or done.

"Design is thinking made visual" Saul Bass

Some cool things

View all cool things

Skills

Photoshop

Photoshop allows users to think outside the realm of possibility and create truly spectacular works of art. From making light alterations such as removing imperfections or distracting features, or even completely changing the visual organization of the image. Optical illusions are particularly interesting to achieve in Photoshop. Though it's often used for simple photo editing, such as brightness or contrast, the manipulation possibilities in Photoshop is endless.

Find out more

Illustrator

A program like Illustrator is best for vector based graphics, such as illustrations, patterns, logos, and branding in general. Due to the fact it is vector based, anything made in Illustrator can be resized for any size - it can be made bigger or smaller without losing quality. It's also great for working with logos and fonts as each letter can be individually altered. Illustrator also allows you to create completely freehand drawings, with a variety of paintbrush options.

Find out more

InDesign

InDesign is a desktop publishing and typesetting software that is often used for posters, flyers, books, ebooks, brochures, magazines, and even for newspapers. It is an intuitive program with a great many shortcuts that allows you to work quickly and efficiently without any headaches. With InDesign, you can make changes to many pages at once, allowing for any last minute changes to be implemented without too much trouble as late as you want.

Find out more

Get in touch

Your Details
Name
Email
Comments
Send a message

