

Città Café

Coffee Shop Consumptions in Montreal

These statistics show that coffee and tap water are the most commonly consumed beverages. Therefore, the most sold products include water and coffee in result to the restaurant stocking up on every drink that contains these two ingredients.

The clientel of coffee shops in Montreal is a large, diverse group of individuals. That being so, our cafés are situated in the heart of montreal where there is a greater range of cultured people and an exceptionally larger population.

73%
Caucasian

67%
South Asian

71%
East/South eastasian